John 11:32-36

When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. "Where have you laid him?" he asked. "Come and see, Lord," they replied. Jesus wept. Then the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"

An excerpt from Along the Way: A Sermon on John 11:1-45 (Jennifer Sanders, 4/08/2017, www.belovedcommunitychurch.org)

The image we often carry of Jesus as divine, as spiritual being, is a denial of the power of the incarnation. The power of Jesus is in his humanity as well as in his divinity. He carries it in his body. We are supposed to learn from that.

Jesus teaches us fully embodied life – and it makes our disregard for the well-being of bodies of others all the more a sin. He sees the sorrow of Mary and he cries with her and the others who are grieving.

Think about this – he already knows what he's there to do – he's not crying for Lazarus. He sees the great sorrow of Mary and it causes him too to weep. This is truly a sign of the God who loves us, who suffers with us in our suffering, who is present and deeply connected to our hearts.

That's who Jesus is. Jesus is not distant, aloof, remote. Jesus is right here, holding us in relationship and acknowledging our pain.

*I see a generation
Rising up to take their place
With selfless faith, with selfless faith
I see a near revival
Stirring as we pray and seek
We're on our knees, we're on our knees*

*Hosanna, Hosanna
Hosanna in the highest
Hosanna, Hosanna
Hosanna in the highest*

Palm Sunday April 5, 2020

The sun rises every morning and sheds light, vanquishing the night's darkness. The rooster also rises every morning only, unlike the sun, he simply makes noise. But the darkness of the night is dispelled by sunshine, not by the rooster's crowing. The world can use more light and less noise. Wherever I can, I want to be light.

A PRAYER FOR TRIUMPH

A Prayer for Triumph By Mary Southerland

A PRAYER FOR TRIUMPH

Father, I choose to believe You are faithful and will do what you promise to do in Your Word. I believe when I lay the pain and hurt of my past at Your feet, You not only can but also will transform it all into something beautiful. I choose to believe You will turn the broken places of my life into living illustrations of Your sufficiency and healing power. I trust You, Lord.

In Jesus' Name, Amen

To see an angel, you must see another's soul.
To feel an angel, you must touch another's heart.
To hear an angel you must listen to both.

As a single footstep will not make a path on the earth,
so a single thought will not make a pathway in the mind.
To make a deep physical path, we walk again and again.
To make a deep mental path, we must think over and over the kind of thoughts we wish to dominate our lives.

Henry David Thoreau
